

Being a critic!

- In your groups, choose a popular movie or television show. Choose a SPECIFIC SCENE to critique.
- Research the movie/show and answer the following “elemental information”:
 - What is the subject of the show and of your specific selection?
 - Who and what will the selection focus on?
 - What is the purpose of the scene (to entertain, move, persuade)?
 - Is it meant to be humorous, serious?
 - Why do you think the show is popular?
- Give us your group’s review: today it is just about like and dislike. But consider the following:
 - Costume
 - Character believability
 - Visual effects
 - Dialogue quality
 - Applicability to real life
- Create your review. Your group will:
 - Show the clip from your chosen media
 - Give us the “elemental information”: see above
 - Talk about why you think it’s popular , using the above guidelines
